

DESCRIPTION:

This hands-on training class for COMMANDconcrete users takes a detailed look at the functions and features of COMMANDtrack. As our recommended tracking and scheduling solution, COMMANDtrack provides a highly functional, reliable approach to managing dispatch operations.

NOTES:

This class content is designed for non-optimized COMMANDconcrete Version 2 users. While some of the information is the same, it is not specifically designed for those that are running COMMANDoptimize.

TOPICS:

COMMANDtrack Latest Additions and Features

- Plant group availability
- Screen layout exit prompt
- Improvements to visual layout of Truck Tracking
- Additional options in Show Loads display

COMMANDtrack Features

- Tabbed windows
- Multiple display support
- Dock, undock and pin options
- “Hover over” tool tip balloons
- Previous days capability
- Multiple order, plant, scheduling and truck windows available
- Display indicators for keyboard shortcuts
- Multiple scheduling screens
- Simplified toggle for scheduling features
- Access to active orders from scheduling screen
- Order highlight functionality on scheduling graph
- Scheduling screen color legend
- Screen layouts defined per user

COMMANDtrack Daily Use

- COMMANDtrack Display
- Using COMMANDtrack
- Selecting windows
- Customizing the layout

