

DESCRIPTION:

If you are considering COMMANDoptimize or already a current user, this half-day training class focuses on the roles and responsibilities of order takers, schedulers and shippers operating in an Optimized environment. This class will include an introduction to COMMANDoptimize, Optimization techniques and best practices in setting up orders and managing the Optimized plan daily.

TOPICS:

Introduction to COMMANDoptimize

- What is it?
- How does it work?
- How will it impact and what value will it bring to my daily role?

Direct Order Entry with COMMANDoptimize

- A walk through of the Order Entry process defining each field and associating those definitions to real world scenarios

Understanding the COMMANDoptimize Gantt Chart

- No matter your role in Central Dispatch, COMMANDoptimize Gantt Charts can be a useful tool during many decision-making moments. Learn how this tool can assist you in daily scenarios including:
 - When to schedule a same day order
 - Reviewing the plan for a large pour
 - Confirming what the schedule looks like for next day
 - How COMMANDoptimize Gantt chart is utilized by each role
 - As well as other scenarios

COMMANDoptimize OCMI Dashboard

- A review of features included in this handy dashboard that will provide key data points to keep you in the loop on how your Optimization engine is running. These features include:
 - A web version of the Gantt Chart
 - COMMANDoptimize Scoreboard
 - Real Time Traffic Updates
 - Status of your Optimization Engine
 - Optimization Data Health Check

Hand Out Review

- Review of key documents and how you can use them going forward.